

1 Corinthians (Growing Up)

POINT: "What is the book about?"

It is about how destructively infantile the flesh is and how necessary it is to pursue love (maturity) for the building up of the saints.

PURPOSE: "Why was the book written?"

To cause Believers to put away childish things... act like men (Christ) by walking in love (the love of Christ).

PRACTICAL APPLICATION: "How does this affect my life personally?"

1. Immaturity causes what problems in my life & among the brethren?

1 Corinthians 3.1-3

2. Why does becoming knowledgeable not make me mature? 1 Corinthians 8.1

3. What does a mature person seek to do differently than an immature person?

1 Corinthians 10.23,24

4. According to 1 Corinthians 13.1-11, have I put away childish things?
